Title:	General Practitioner
Reports to:	Clinical Operations Director
Direct Reports:	2
Status:	Consultancy
Duty Station:	Kigali, Rwanda

About the Company

EDPU Africa CBC was established in Rwanda as a Community Benefits Company with a transformative mission: to promote universal access to the early detection and prevention of Non-Communicable Diseases (NCDs) in Rwanda, with plans to expand across Africa. By leveraging Artificial Intelligence-supported detection and treatment modules, EDPU Africa aims to revolutionize healthcare delivery, making it more accessible, efficient, and proactive in addressing NCDs. This innovative approach holds the potential to significantly reduce the burden of these diseases, ensuring that early detection and effective intervention become the standard, not the exception, throughout the continent.

About the Role

To lead the cohesive deployment of the EDPU solution within Rwanda's public and private sectors, we are recruiting General Practitioners (GPs). Overseeing a team of two professionals and collaborating with various internal and external stakeholders across diverse geographical and cultural backgrounds, GPs will play a pivotal role in ensuring the smooth integration of EDPU technology within the healthcare system in Rwanda.
